TO HANG TWO BANDITS

FIVE GRANTED TWENTY-DAY REPRIEVE BY GOVERNOR.

Doomed Men Convicted of First-Degree Murder for Their Part in Raid at Columbus.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Santa Fe, N. M.—Sanchez and Francisco Alvarez, two of the Villista bandits condemned to death for first-degree murder for participation in the Columbus massacre, were taken to Deming on the 7th from the penitentiary here to be hanged. The governor issued a twenty-one day reprieve for further investigation of the cases of the other five. The adjutant general had two companies of the national guard at Deming to prevent threatened attempts at rescue by Mexicans.

The seven men were tried in the District Court at Deming and convicted of first-degree murder for their part in the raid on Columbus, N. M., March 9, in which seventeen soldier and civilian Americans were killed, several wounded and a number of buildings destroyed. Three months later they were sentenced to pay the extreme penalty.

Woman Prevents Jail Delivery. Clayton—Through the bravery of Mrs. Crumley, wife of Sheriff Crumley, a jail delivery was frustrated. Sheriff Crumley was in the jail getting ready to fasten in the prisoners for the night, when the latter made a run for the great outdoors. Mrs. Crumley drew a rifle and drove the entire herd back into the jail, except one desperate criminal who was waiting for a penitentiary sentence. This one made a break for liberty. Sheriff Crumley getting into action, shot at the fugitive, who fell, but immediately got up and fled into the night.

Say Unionists Fear Strike Service. Albuquerque—Informed by labor leaders that fear of continued service, possibly with strike duty, was keeping union men from enlisting in the national guard for duty at the border, recruiting officers have asked the government to pledge honorable discharge to those who want it when the state troops shall have been mustered out of federal service. They hope in this way to get the men needed to maintain the state troops on a regular basis.
